ACADEMIC REGULATION FOR MASTER DEGREE PROGRAMME

1.0 Title

These Academic Regulations shall be called “Chhattisgarh Kamdhenu Vishwavidyalaya Master Degree Academic Regulations 2013” governing Master Degree Programmes for the faculty of Veterinary Science and Animal Husbandry and Dairy Technology under semester system. These rules will come into force from the Academic session 2013-14 and shall be applicable to all the students on roll of the Vishwavidyalaya, uniformly.

2.0 Definitions

- 2.01 University: The University means Chhattisgarh Kamdhenu Vishwavidyalaya, Durg, Chhattisgarh.
- 2.02 Academic session: An academic session is a period during which a cycle of study is completed. It shall commence on or after 1st July. There shall be two semesters in an academic session.
- 2.03 Semester: A semester shall normally consist of 20-21 weeks with 90 instructional days and 20 days of examination.
- 2.04 Curriculum: It is a series of courses offered to provide learning opportunities to meet the requirements for a degree.
- 2.05 Course: A course is a unit of instructions, series of classes and work experience extending over a semester. It has specified number, title and credits.
- 2.06 Credit (Course credit): It is a measure of quantity of work done in a course. One credit represents one hour of lecture or two to three hours of laboratory or field work per week over a semester.
- 2.07 Course Load: It is number of credits a student shall register in a semester.
- 2.08 Grade: It is a measure of quantity of work done in a course to meet percentage of marks obtained in a course by 10. It shall be expressed on a 10- point scale up to second decimal place.
- 2.09 Grade point: A grade point is a product of credit registered by a student and grade secured in a course, which shall be expressed on 10- point scale up to second decimal place.
- 2.10 Credit point: A credit point is a product of grade point obtained by a student and number of credits in a course.
- 2.11 Grade Point Average (GPA): It is the measure of performance of a student in all the courses taken during a semester. The GPA is computed by dividing the total grade points earned by a student in a semester by the total number of credits registered. It shall be expressed on 10- point scale up to second decimal place.
- 2.12 Overall Grade Point Average (OGPA): It is a measure of cumulative performance of a student on completion of the second and subsequent semesters of the degree programme. It is computed by dividing the total credit points earned by a student up to the end of a particular semester by the total number of credits. It shall be expressed on a 10-point scale up to second decimal place.
- 2.13 The OGPA shall be rounded off to second digit of decimal point on the basis of third digit. If third digit of decimal point is 5 or more than 5, then second digit will be increased by one. If, however, it is less than 5, it will be ignored. This will be done at the end of each semester while calculating the OGPA.
- 2.14 “S” and “US” grade: “S” grade means satisfactory performance and “US” grade means unsatisfactory performance.

- 2.15 Examination: Examination means practical, theory and all such examinations which are conducted under the semester system.
- 2.16 Superintendent: Superintendent means Dean to the College who shall act as Superintendent of Examination.

4	8	28	11*	1	40	20	60	PGS-501, PGS-502, PGS-503, PGS-506
* the total credit load for Minor & supporting courses will be 11 credits with the minimum requirement of 6 credits for Minor and 3 credits for supporting courses to be selected from any one of the allied subjects as per ICAR PG Curricula and syllabi 2009.

subject to observance of regulations under the Section entitled "Academic standing, continuance, dropping re-admission of students, award of Certificate of Distinction and substitution of courses".

- 7.02 The semesters cancelled due to failure to register in time, withdrawal, offering of less than permissible credit load, dropping by student himself, use of unfair means and any other reason shall not be counted towards prescribed minimum duration requirements.

7.03 A student shall be eligible to break his studies only on completion of minimum duration of 2 semesters.

7.04 If semester of a student is discontinued as per subsection 7.03 above he/she shall be entitled to resume his studies in the subsequent academic session.

7.05 The total period of gap or discontinuation, as per subsection 7.03 above, should be with adequate justification. However, it shall not exceed 4 semesters.

8.0 Medium of Instructions

8.01 Medium of instructions for all courses in all the faculties shall be English.

9.0 Maximum credits, withdrawal, dropping and substitution of course

9.01 A student shall normally be permitted to register a minimum of 12 and maximum of 18 credits in a semester. Provided that, in III and IV semester, if sufficient courses are not left to fulfil the minimum requirement, this rule of minimum credit load will not be applicable.

9.02 On the recommendation of Chairman/Advisory Committee/Head of the Department, the credit for research can be registered over and above the limit prescribed for the course work. However, this will not count for determining the minimum and maximum credit load.

9.03 The semester of a student, who has offered less than 12 credits in a semester, shall be treated as cancelled and it will not be counted towards minimum duration requirement for Masters' degree. However, it will not apply in case of students covered under Subsection 9.02 above.

9.04 Withdrawal/dropping of courses may be permitted by the Dean of the College on application made by the students, duly recommended by the Major Advisor/ Head of the Department. Dropping/withdrawal of course(s) shall be permitted only within one week from the date of hourly examination.

10.0 Attendance requirements

10.01 Students are required to attend all the theory lectures and practicals conducted in laboratory or field during the semester. A student is required to attend minimum 75% of the scheduled classes starting from his/her date of registration. For this purpose theory and practical classes will be counted separately. Course teacher will essentially notify the attendance of students in the first week of every month under intimation to the Head of the department/ Dean of the College. The shortage of attendance shall be notified by Head of department/Course teacher under intimation to the Dean 7 days prior to the commencement of examination.

10.02 The Dean of the College may condone the shortage of attendance up to 5 per cent on valid grounds on the recommendation of the Head of the Department.

10.03 The students who have registered only the thesis and falls short of attendance, the registration in the thesis be treated as withdrawn.

10.04 Due to withdrawl of the registration (in the thesis) the semester will also not be counted towards minimum residential requirement.

10.05 If a student registered the total research credits but he/she does not submit the thesis due to any reason (Except PG Acd. Regulation 10.3) in the semester, "deffered" grade be awarded in that semester.

10.06 If all the students of a class remain absent in mass from all the scheduled classes for a continuous period, exceeding 10 days in a semester, the semester shall be cancelled and the fee etc., paid by the students shall be forfeited. It will also not count towards duration requirement.

10.07 Regular teaching shall start from the next day after the scheduled date of registration and attendance shall be counted from that day till 7 days preceding the date of commencement of theory examination. The students who are required to forego classes due to their participation in sports, athletics and other extracurricular activities at Inter Collegiate, Inter University, Inter State and National/ International level, shall be counted as present for the purpose of calculating percentage of attendance on submission of certificate by Dean Student Welfare/ Officer-in-charge who shall also send a copy of list of participating students to Dean of the College. However, the relaxation of attendance on this account cannot exceed more than 10 days.

10.08 Dean of the college shall notify the non-eligibility of students not to appear in the examination 3 days in advance from the commencement of the final theory examination and a notice to this effect shall be displayed on the notice board of the college.

10.09 A student who has completed attendance requirements and fails to appear in the practical or theory examination or in both shall be treated as failed and be awarded zero marks while calculating OGPA in the Semester Report Card/ mark sheet, however, the same will be indicated as “Ab” (for Absent) there in.

11.0 Minimum credit requirements for award of degree

11.01 The students will have to register the courses as per point 7.01 from the major department for major courses and from other departments for minor and supporting courses. In addition to the theory course credits, all the credits as per rule No. 7.01 for respective faculties for research must be earned through research programme approved by the Advisory Committee.

11.02 In addition to above a student will be required to offer other subjects prescribed as compulsory in all faculty.

11.03 Student shall be required to offer minor/supporting courses from other departments as recommended by the advisory committee.

12.0 Mode of examination and evaluation

12.01 The academic performance and achievements of the students shall be assessed through examination and evaluation of theory and practical work in laboratory or field.

12.02 Paper setting and evaluation of theory papers and practicals shall be internal in both the semesters in all the faculties.

12.03 Examination schedule in a semester and their distribution of marks shall be as below:

S.No.	Name of examination	Marks
(i)	Theory examination	100
	a) One quiz (to be conducted in regular classes)	5
	b) One assignment	5
	c) One hourly examination (to be conducted in regular classes)	15
	d) Final theory examination(80% subjective & 20% objective)	75
(ii)	Practical examination	50

12.04 Evaluation of a student will be done on 10- point grade scale and he/she need to score minimum 60 % marks to pass the each course.

12.05 Deficiency course of U.G. level, if registered by a P.G. student, get satisfactory grade on obtaining 60% or more marks (applicable to both major and minor courses) and less than 60% marks obtained by the student will be considered as unsatisfactory.

12.06 All deficiency courses shall be evaluated internally (by the course teacher as per P.G. regulations).

- 12.07 PG pre-previous students who have failed maximum in 4 deficiency courses will be allowed to move in PG (Previous) on Academic Probation. If, he/she again fails in more than one deficiency courses he/she will be dropped from the roll of the Vishwavidyalaya. If a PG (Previous) student fails in one deficiency course again, he/she will be allowed to move to PG final subject to fulfilling minimum OGPA and abiding other P.G. academic regulations of Vishwavidyalaya.
- 12.08 Answer books of all quizzes, hourly, assignments, practical examinations should be kept under safe custody with the course teacher and the answer books of final theory examinations be kept with the Dean of the College for a period of one year. The course teachers will submit the results of the courses in the prescribed Instructor Result Slip (Annexure -III) through the Head of the Department to the Dean of the college.
- 13.0 Academic standing, continuance, dropping, re-admission of students, award of Certificate of Distinction and substitution of courses.
- 13.01 Continuance of a student as enrolled student of the University shall depend on the fulfilment of the following conditions:
- Continuous satisfactory academic performance;
 - Satisfactory conduct and disciplined behaviour;
 - Satisfactory health and physical capacity to continue the academic activities;
 - Timely payment of prescribed dues/fee to the University and registration of courses
- 13.02 If a student fails to appear in examination either in theory or practical, he/she shall be deemed to have failed in the theory paper or practical as the case may be and shall be awarded zero marks while calculating OGPA in the Semester Report Card/ Marksheet, however, the same will be indicated as “Ab”(for absence) therein.
- 13.03 If a student fails to obtain the minimum overall grade point average (OGPA) of 6 out of 10 in the first year of Masters’ Degree programme at the end of second semesters, he/she shall have to repeat the same class. Entire performance of a repeat student during the previous academic session shall be cancelled and this period shall not be counted for total maximum duration requirements. The academic regulations, courses and fee structure as applicable to freshly admitted students of that year would be applicable to repeat students also.
- 13.04 A student in the pre-requisite year of degree programme failing/dropped in more than 4 courses (theory & practical separately) at the end of the academic session shall have to repeat in the same class. Entire performance of a “repeat” student, during the previous academic session shall be cancelled and shall not be counted for maximum duration requirement. The academic regulations, courses and fee structure as applicable to freshly admitted pre-requisite year students of that session would be applicable to repeat students also.
- 13.05 If repeat student of first year class of Masters’ Degree programme fails to obtain a minimum 6 out of 10 OGPA in two consecutive sessions, he/she will be dropped from the rolls of the university by the Dean of the college.
